

PUBLIC RELATIONS

The Public Relations committee steers the communication network for the association. It disseminates news and information to its members as well as to the legal community. It supervises the assembly and distribution of publications that are hard copy productions or maintained on SCUPA's website at www.scupa.org. It also generates any local announcements in the print media.